MANCHUS ARE STILL FIGHTING

(Associated Press Cable.)
NANKING, China, March 11.—Tang Shao Yi, who was one of Dr. Sun Yat Sen's cabinet when the latter was President of China and was generally expected to be chosen for Prime Minister under the new government, was today elected Premier.

Expects to Restore Order.
President Yuan Shih Kai today expressed himself as confident that order would soon be restored throughout the republic. He said that the new government is now firmly enough established so that he expects it to be able to enforce the laws and soon put an end to the many disorders reported from various provinces.

Peking Riots.
PEKING, China, March 11.—This city is in a condition of armed peace, with numerous outbreaks of an ugly character reported in different localities. Decapitations of rebels against the authorities are taking place daily and there are occasional shootings.

A few hours before the inauguration of President Yuan Shih Kai today some of the old troops of the Manchu dynasty tore Republican flags from a lot of buildings and began rioting. They were suppressed without any serious fighting.

Fighting in Canton.
HONGKONG, China, March 11.—Serious fighting is reported in Canton. A hundred were killed and 250 wounded, according to the last estimates, in contests between the royalists and the soldiers of the Republic.

The Manchu forces have refused to disarm and are entrenched in the admiralty quarters. They have captured two river forts, and are prepared to resist attack.

THREE JUSTICES DISSENT.
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11.—Chief Justice White and Justices Lamar and Hughes dissented from the decision given today by the United States Supreme Court to the effect that patentees have a right to control retailers' contracts, and it is now stated that there will be a rehearing of the case with a full bench, two places on the bench having been vacant when the matter was heard. The seat of the late Justice Harlan was unfilled when the case was heard, and Justice Day was absent, and it is desired to have the matter heard by a full bench.

The decision upheld the rights of patentees to dictate the terms upon which retailers should sell their patented articles. In his dissenting opinion,

Chief Justice White said that the law, under the decision, could be made to include everything used in a household.

ROGERS IS GUILTY.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 11.—A jury in the Superior Court today found John S. Rogers guilty of murder in the first degree. He was accused of the murder of Benjamin Goodman, salesman for the Brilliant Jewelry Company, on Nov. 18th. Rogers was arrested shortly after Goodman's body was found at Front and Oregon streets covered by a pile of grapeskins, his head shattered and a quantity of jewelry worth $5000 gone.

The detectives recovered nearly all the jewelry from Rogers when his paramour, Hazel Smith, disclosed its hiding place. Rogers then accused two of his assailants of the murder, but later admitted that they were innocent.

MAY ALL BE SAFE.
SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 11.—Missing fishermen who were out in a gale are gradually getting back to shore. Early today nineteen were reported in danger in a heavy gale, and loss of life was feared. Not all have yet returned, but those who have reached shore encourage the hope that the rest will save their lives.

KILLS HER LOVER.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 11.—Miss Viola Carver, a Pasadena young girl, shot and killed J. Edward Edge, a musician and real estate dealer of this city. Disappointed love was the cause of the shooting.

Real News Just Happens

Despite the beliefs of certain glowful journalists who think news should be made to happen.

But the gathering and printing of news doesn't just happen. That comes as a result of conscientious effort. How many readers realize the time and thought that goes into getting out a single issue of the EVENING BULLETIN?

THE BULLETIN

Is the Hawaii Newspaper that prints the news as it happens—not manufactured or guessed-at stories.
